

Sherwin Victor

Sherwin has been working for John since 1995 and when the shop moved to the Berkshires so did he.

He started working with metal in trade school at the age of eleven.

Sherwin is the shop foreman and he oversees all the jobs during production and also does the site management. He coordinates with the contractors to organize the job site and maintain the layout.

Sherwin loves working on cars and going home to Trinidad on vacation.

Sherwin Victor

Sherwin working on Finn Rail in Paint Booth